WEDDING BELL BLUES: The late April wedding of one of the St. Lunatics, Corey Edwards, best known as Slo Down, was a fiasco. Nelly's sister, Jacqueline "Jackie" Donahue, was among the guests who wound up serving food. People in the wedding party waited for two hours without getting food or drinks, and the wedding planner showed up with the bride's dress an hour after the wedding was supposed to start. The couple got married at the Jewel Box in Forest Park, with a reception at Shrewsbury City Hall. After some discussion about paying (or NOT paying the planner), topnotch defense attorney Scott Rosenblum (a guest at the wedding) wrote the planner a letter. HIGH NOTES: Six St. Louis area high school seniors are singing the praises of their private voice teacher, Sheila Dugan of Maryland Heights, after the students' admission to top college musical theater programs. The local talents and schools are: Andrew Laudell (Kirkwood), Peter Gosik (St. Louis U. Dugan's list of students who have made current or recent Broadway, off-Broadway or regional theater stops includes Tara Seisner (Ladue), Rachel Kopf (Ladue), Katy Grenfell (Parkway West), Robert Gallagher (Clayton), Jerry Gallagher (Clayton), Natalie Hall (John Burroughs), Michael Burton (CBC), and Danny Rothman (Ladue). And, at the beginning stage of her career is Dugan student Natalie Bram, 12, who just finished sixth grade at Oakville Middle School and will play Annie at The Muni this summer.

GIVING IT BACK: Illinois Circuit Judge Lloyd Karmeier is donating to charity the back pay of $6,000 that he will receive as a result of an Illinois Supreme Court decision. The high court ruled May 20 that the governor did not have authority to deny state judges their raises, which means the judges will get back pay for two years of
